KATES TO SUBSCRIBERS

The Republican twice a week is $1 %)

The Republican and Weekly Cleveland Leader, $2.30,

The Republican and Toledo Blade,

The Republican and Ohio Farmer,

The Republican and Farm Journal,

(monthly) $1.50. A. Jay Miller,

Astorney at law. Special attention given collections ar settlement of estates. Room S and S, Eurpise block, Bellefontaine, O.

W. W. Riddle, orney and Counselor at Law. Office or spie's Sational Bank, Belle'ontaine, O.

Howenstine & Huston,

West and West, at-Law. Collections given prompt Partition and settlement of estates y. Practice in the State and U. S fiftee on Main street, directly opposint House, Bellerontaine, O.

J. D. Metaughlin,

(Ex-Probate Judge.)

ey-at-Law. Will give prompt attention eral law practice, is any collections, coneing and settlement of satates. Probate as a specialty. Office-Rooms I and 2, outside National Bank building.

John C. Hover, t-Law. Special attention given to of estates, collections and loans, ce in State and U. S. Courts. Office rrence block, Bellefontaine, O.

Hamilton Bros.

Edward K. Campbell,

J. C. Longfellow,

Dr. Carrie Richeson. Me hours, 9 to 11. s. m., 2 to 4 and 7 to 8 Particular attention given to diseases of Dr. W. H. Outland, and Surgeon. Office, 120 Court Ave., block. Residence 319 E. Calillouthe eral practice of medicine.

Dr. Oscar Kalston, a and Surgeon. Office 123 East Column et. Residence 407 North Mod Rive hope 288 three rings for the ap-me of the Nese and Throat. Office on Sont aln street, Beliefontaine, O.

Dr. "allie M. Couner.

Dr. J. H. Will-on.

W. S. Southard. nd Feed Barn, McKee's old stand, Genri House, Beliefontaine, Ohio, rigs and teams. Horses boarded by a; single feeds furnished farmers'

Removed to 118 North Main.

Keller &

-DEALERS IN-

Seeds Grain, Salt, Wool. Cements,

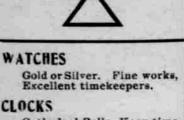

Calcined Plaster And all the Best Grades of

SOFT and HARD

Warehouse and Office Bellefontaine 320 W. Columbus

FRANK R. GRIFFIN, DENTIST

Office Room 20, Lawrence Bldg

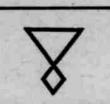

Cathedral Bells. Keep time JEWELRY

Rings, Pins, Bracelets, Buttons

Pure and Beautiful. Repairing of all kinds.

-AT--

S. W. Cor. Main and Chillicothe Bellefontaine, Ohio.

FOR SALE

I herd bull, 3 yrs. old; 7 bulls, 5 to 5 months old; 7 heifers, 6 to 15 nonths old, and a few young cows that will be fresh soon. They are all good ones and there is no better stock in the world for milk and beef combined than the above stock of cattle and I will sell them worth the oney. Write or call on A. LeSourd,

Public Auctioneer

Reasonable Rates

And satisfaction gu ranteed Ev-ery effact will be made to make all sales a success, and prompt atten-tection wil be given to all corre-sponds or and to all business en-

E.B. Norviel Middleburg Ohi

Winter Tourist Rates to GUBA, FLORIDA

Southern Winter Resorts, Also Texas and California via

Big Four Route

Continuing vat'l April 30, 1905, tickets will be on sale valle from all points on the "Big Four Route" good for retura passage until June 1, 1905. Take advantage of the law rates and ong return limit. ong return limit

For full information and particulars as to rates, tickets, limits, call on Agents 'Big Four Route," or address the undersigned.

WARREN I LYNCH,

Gen'l Pass. & Ticket Age.

Cincinnasi. C.

RAILROADTIMECARI BIG FOUR.-Indianapolis Division In effect Nov. 27 1-64

8	WEST
ł	No II. daily	art dot	7:25	A.
,	No. 21, daily		11 10	265
	20 21 22 21	dpt	11 15	8.5
	No. 29, daily	dpt	3:00	p.
	No. 43, daily
		opt	8750	Pa
	No. 3, daily ex Sunday	dot	9:15	2
	No. 5, daily ex Sunday	art	5:55	P
	No. 53, local ex Sunday	dpt	6:35
	EAST.
	No. 45, dally	det	11:15
	No. 16, daily	Arv	6:25	p
	No. 19, Gally	dpl.	6:30	pi
	No. 18, daily	MTT	BR SOF	P
		opt	9:15	P
	No. 36, daily	dpt	9:20
	No.10,dally ex Sunday	AFT	4:15	p
	No. 52, local ex Sunday	dpt	5:00	p
	BIG FOUR-Sanduaky D		on.

No. 21, dally ex Sonday.

Nr . 26, daily except Sunday . to, 58, local, ex Sunday ... T.I & O. C. -St. Marys Division. in effect May 1, 1904. SOUTH BOUND.

Farmers' Insti- New Orleans and Atlanta and the gunboat Marietta. tute Program.

Rushsylvania Scene three Moorish musicians, all of whom had been left in St. Louis when the of Sessions.

M. E. CHURCH

Won't Hold the Large Attendance.

December 26-27 Are on Dates When the Institute Will Be Held.

Following is the program of th Farmers' Institute to be held in the Methodist church, Rushsylvania, Dec.

MONDAY, DEC. 26 9:30 s. m., sun time. Solo-Dr. C. E. Huston
Prayer-Dr. Knepper
Piano Solo-Ella Irick
Secretary's Report-Will Irick
"A Farmer's Figures on Feeding Rations"-L. H. Goddard
Recitation-Leona Duff
"Humus and Fertilizers"-J. P. Rudasil

Discussion opened by Gilbert Newman Afternoon Session, 1 p. m., sun time Piano Solo-Paul Huston

'An Acre of Pasture Compared With An Acre of Corn''-L. H. Goddard 'Prontable Hay Raising-J. M. Beav-

Discussion opened by James Gardner Followed by M. A. Peerwester Recitation, "Aunt Einora's Hero"-Baile Royer "The Use of Cement on the Farm"-L H. Goddard Piano Solo-Wilds Wright

Evening Se Music-Roloson Quintette Prayer—Rev. J. A. Alexander Duet—Anna May Lewis and Ella Irick "The farmer, His Education"-John

W. Pegg Becitation—Florence Aiken "How Shall We Educate Our Daugh-ters for Farmers Wives?"—Minni-Dickinson Hall So'o and Chorus—W. H. Smith Music—Roleson Quintette Benedic ion-Dr. Knepper

Tuesday Morning.9:30 a. m., sun tim olo-Edna Townsend Prayer—Rev. White Prano Solo—Edna Watkins 'The Dairy Interests''-D. McCrary

small Fruits on the Farm"-O. Fawcett Fawcett Discussion opened by W. H. Grabiel
Recitation—Flora Watkins
"What a Farmer May See at the Experiment Station"—L. H. Goddar

Tuesday Afternoon, 1 p. m. Plano Solo—Bethel Royer 'Farm Labor' '-L. H. Goddard ecitation-Anna Aigen

Piano Duet-Anna May Lewis an Edith Stanfield "The Dairy Interests" -D. McCrary -Rev. R. Hargrave

PASSES AWAY

Wife of Levi Koons Dies From a Stroke of Apoplexy.

Mrs. Frances Koons, wife of Mr. Levi Koons, died at the family home in Harrison township, west of Bellefontaine, at about four o'clock on the morning of Wednesday, December 21, 1904. Death was caused from a stroke of apoplexy suffered Tuesday.

Mrs. Koons' maiden name was Kretcher. She was born December 5, 1830, near Culpepper Court House, Virginia. When but a child she came to this county with her parents and she had remained a resident of the county since. Her marriage to Mr. Koons occurred August 8, 1848. To the union two sons, Andrew and Edward, were born. Edward died in early childhood. Andrew survives, residing on a farm nearby that of his father. Mr. and Mrs. Koons joined the Methodist church at Blue Jacket in 1859 and some years later transferred their membership to the Methodist Episcopal church of Bellefontaine.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. lesse Swank will be held from the Greenwood cemetery at DeGraff.

Now that the Mickle & Cheney peoole in Mechanicsburg are thinking about rebuilding their factory, which burned recently, and are inclined to ribly mangled as the result of a boiler receive propositions, it would not be a explosion at the sawmill of B. F. Red. JoHantgen and Sidney Nichols. bad idea for this city to take the mat- line, near Rohrsburg, yesterday. The ter up, and if possible bring the dead: factory here. The company employs Irwin Kline, aged 30. Charles Wright, in the neighborhood of 50 girls and the employment was steady the year round at good wages. Urbana and Marysville will make an effort to secure the

SHORT SCRAPS OF NEWS.

The Danish vessel Greda has arrived at St. Johns, N. F., her captain injured and her mate dead as the result of her experiences in a fierce tornado Orders have been issued by the navy department to put out of commission the cruisers San Francisco world's fair closed, have been deport ed to their native country by the immigration bureau. Francis A. Brokoski, once a politician, committed suicide in the rooms of the Republican Marching club at Chicago by turning on all the gas jets.

Col. Stephen Bassford, who com manded the Ninety-fourth Ohio volunteer infantry in the civil war, is dead at his home in New York City. He entered the army as a private.

He served three terms as member of the Illinois legislature. Ex-Gov. James P. Eagle is dead at three weeks. He was governor of Arkansas from 1889 to 1893. He had been proceeded to 1893. He had been president of the Arkansas Baptist state convention 21 years. The Steel Bar association at a re cent meeting in Jersey City advanced the price of steel bars $2 a ton. The steel plate manufacturers held a meeting there also and voted to ad vance the price of steel plates $2 s

The prediction that the fiscal year ending in June, 1905, will see the influx of immigrants into the greatest influx of immigrants into the United States which the country has yet seen, is made by the commi general of immigration, Frank P. Sar

The Japanese cruiser Tsushima seized the British steamer Nigretia, for Vladivostok, off Ulsan An examination of the Nigre tia's cargo showed she had a large of contraband of war or completed arrangements with a for-eign financial group for a loan of about $15,000,000 to purchase new artillery. The occasion of the rearmament is the recent Bulgarian purchas of quick firing guns.

J. Pierpont Morgan has purchased what is said to be the oldest plane in the world from Rudolph Vivoli, of Firensola, Italy, who is now in Joplin, Mo., for $6,000. The instrument was exhibited at the Louisiana Purchase exposition by Mr. Vivoli. It was built Thrilling rescues of nine nuns, Sis-ters of Hotel Dieu, marked the progress of a fire that swept through a convent at Chicago and destroyed it. were carried from the building almost overcome by smoke. The stairs fell before the sisters could reach them. Vindication for all the officers and nen on the Massachusetts is contained in the report of the board appoint. ed by the commandant of the League Island navy yard to investigate the recent accident on board that vessel in which the death of several men was caused by the blowing off of a gasket. Lisbon, Dec. 21 .- A storm which uddenly burst on the northern coas of Portugal has caused great loss of life. Eighteen fishermen were drowned at Figueira Da Fez and 600 others have been rendered destitute. A ferryboat plying at the mouth of the Mon dego river was capsized and 14 perons were drowned. In the Leixoes basin, near Oporto, five boats were sunk and five persons drowned. City Officials are Held Responsible Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 21.—The oroner's jury in the inquest over the victims of the suspension bridge disaster have brought in a verdict declaring that the bridge was in an unsafe condition and that there was gross negligence on the part of all the officers of Charleston in the care, maintenance and repair of the bridge since January 30, 1896, to the day of unable to fix the responsibility for the disaster on any particular officer or Platt Refuses to be Buncoed New York, Dec. 21 ... Senator Thomas republicans at the Fifth Avenue hotel to-day, at which, he continued, "we will find out the real thing in the way of public sentiment on the senatorial question." "Will Gov. Odell join in the conference?" "No; I don't expect him." "Did you invite him?" "Not on your life. I am for Depew, and he is for Black. He can't bunco me like some people. I have been buncoed long enough."

Reserves to be Mobilized. St. Petersburg, Dec. 21.-Mobiliza. tion of the reserves has been announce ed in seven military districts. is the third and most extensive mobilization of the war and will add about 200,000 men to the army in the far east. It is thought the whole force can be placed in the field by spring. It will bring Gen. Kuropatkin's effective force to 680,000.

Col. Ames is Pardoned. St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 21.-The state board of pardons has granted a pardon to Col. Frederick Ames, brother of exnome Friday morning at 10 o'clock, Mayor A. A. Ames, of Minneapolis. can time. Interment will be made at Col. Ames was chief of police and was convicted of "graft" during his broth er's administration.

Boiler Explosion Killed Four Men. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Dec. 21.-Four men were killed and their bodies ter-William Redline, aged 30. aged 35. Elias Ash, aged 60.

London, Dec. 21.-The Daily Mail's correspondent at Hong Kong says that into a nigger majority than his first wishing we were back in the country. a powerful Japanese squadron is pro- triumph gave him, remarks the level because there were homes there where greatest thing in the world."- & eding south to attack the Russian headed Cleveland Leader.

FINDS

Kidnapped Daughter

After a Search Covering Years.

Confessed

To Having Taken the Gir Years Ago---Always Treated Her Well.

Tacoma, Wash., December 19.-After 5 years search James McDonald, of ship." She rose and walked to the Cincinnati, has found in a forest at front window. "I might jest as well Twisp, Oganongan County, many miles old daughter, Lillie McDonald, who was kidnaped by two rough looking men on June 10, 1889, while she was playing near her home at Plainfield, HOME BROKEN UP. The kidnsping of Lillie broke up McDonald's home within a year. Mrs. McDonald died in Orange, N. J , from broken heart. McDonald moved to Dayton, Ohio, and later to Cincinnati. He spent a fortune in his efforts to recover the child, who was found last week as the adopted daughter of Mrs. Mary L. McCabe, formerly a nurse at Bellefontaine, Ohio, where Mrs. Mc-Cabe found her nine years ago.

LOCAL MAN CONFESSED. A merchant of Bellefontaine in modrate circumstances confessed to Mrs McCabe, just before dying with typhoid fever, that he and another man had kiduaped her six years previously; that he had reformed and accumulated ome money. He had always treated he girl well.

ADOPTED GIRL. tion, until it finally reached the ears of an absent mood for she did not seem McDonald. Only three months ago he to know what they were talking about. ecured the first definite clew, which brought him to this state and resulted n uniting father and daughter. Until last week neither Mrs. McCabe nor Lillie ever knew the name of her parents. Mrs McCabe will give up her nomestead and accompany McDonald to Cincinnati.

The above sensational story appeared in the Cincinnati Enquirer of Tu sday. Despite all efforts the identity of Mrs. Mary L. McCabe, mentioned as formerly a nurse in this city, remains a mystery. Just because an old family Bible can not be discovered, Jacob Debruler, aged 63 years, of Cynthia, Ky., a union the disaster. The jury, however, was soldier, is unable to get a large pension. According to a letter received by Post Master Campbell, Wes Stevens, a white man, cordially; "it is following the man, moved years ago from Kentucky to Logan county, probably this city, and died. He had in his possession C. Platt yesterday said he had sent the old Bible call'd the Debruler Bible out 100 invitations for a conference of and in the book are the dates of the births of the children of J. H. Debruler, and among them is Jacob's name. What is wanted is a certificate of offered for its return, if only for a week, to an attorney named Bailey at Cynthia. Jacob Debruler is prominent in Kentucky Republican politics, according to the communication.

Where is the Debruler Bible that has een lost for many years? Bellefontaine Lodge No. 209 Free and Accepted Masons chose officers at night. Those elected were the follow-Worshipful Master, W. W. Coulter Senior Warden, Harry N. Kennedy, Junior Warden John W. MacKin-

Senior Descon, Charles H. Lentz. Junior Deacon, Fred Murphy. Treasurer, R. B. Keller, Secretary, W. C. Tremain. Chaplain, Rev. T. G. C. McCalla.

Stewards, Robert Morgan and Chester Pearce. Trustees, Joseph H. Colton, Joseph Following, the election the officers

Tyler, F. K. Carson.

served.

The Christmas Fellowship of Miss Mab

ISABEL GORDON CURTIS (Reprinted from Good Housekeeping by Permission.)

Little Miss Mab sat staring into the radiant heart of a wood fire. It lacked only two days of Christmas She had not yet invited anyone to share the hospitality of her small home. Never since she had been left alone in the world-and that occurred when she was 17-had she known a lonely Christmas; there were always some forsaken creatures ready to turn gratefully to the shelter of her home All these festivities had brought a cer tain heart warmth and happines which lingered for months but it had ot meant fellowship or sympathy. "I believe I want a little bit Christmas to myself this year." Miss Mab whispered to herelf; "it's sich hard work, all the fixin's! I do love to see the old women an' the starved boys an' girls fill themselves up. What they want, though, is the eatin'. They don't know nothin' about fellowship When a woman steps over the 40 line an' has been alone all her life, there's a sort of longin' for fellowship-ain's

The gray cat arched his back and rubbed his plump body against Miss Mab's dress "It's a fine dinner." observed Miss Mab in her solitary musing: "it's a fine enough dinner to deserve fellowout with what is on my mind," she "I know who I want to invite as well as can be; all that's troublin' is the propriety of it. Now if the little thing hedn't a father, I'd take her in and keep her-longer'n Christmas, too." She was watching a six-year-old girl who lived in the big boarding house across the street, which was 'thronged and lonesome," as Miss Mab expressed it. Every afternoon about five the child lingered on the steps and watched eagerly till a man turned the corner—a tall, round-shouldered, thin, sickly-looking man. As soon as she caught sight of him she darted like a swallow down the street and fairly threw herself into his arms. He always slung his lunch box on his wrist and lifted her to his breast They did not seem to talk. The head with its brown curls was laid contentedly on his shoulder and occasionally the father bent to rub his cheek climbed the stens with the little girl in his arms and shut the door behind "It's fellowship inside there," whispered; then she sat down to her lonely little tea table. At seven o'clock she put his bed down cellar; afterward she dressed and started for prayer meet-Mrs McCabe adopted the girl and ing. Two or three friends stopped to old to friends the story of her abduc- speak to her. They decided she was in Miss Mab had only one thought in her mind, and it seemed to rhyme with the hymn, it mingled with the short discourse and prayer. It had only one tenor: she was longing to have the minister settle a monoton for her. It seemed as if all the con gregation lingered to talk with him after prayer meeting. That night once or twice he held out a welcoming hand, but she evaded it; she could not seek his advice until she was alone At last everybody was gone but her self. The young clergyman came forward genially. "I wanted to speak to you fust minute, Mr. Pierce, I live alone, you know, an' I want to give some other folks who are kind of lonesome a bli of Christmas comfort an' fellowship an' a good dinner." "I know nothing more befitting the spirit of Christmas," said the clergy-very teachings of our Master." "I'd like to tell you, though, who is s." said Miss Mab, eagerly; "it's a little girl who lives across the street in great, noisy, desolate boarding house. She'd have to bring her father for he's all she has. They seem to be terrible devoted to each other. I reckon he's a widower-though I don' the age of Jacob, and the book is I now. I've never spoken a word to wanted very badly. A big reward is either of 'em. I thought you'd tell me whether 'twould be proper or not? "There can be no question of the ropriety, Miss Mab," he said earnest-

"In your kindness of heart you could make no mistake." Miss Mab took his proffered hard warmly, "Thank you," she said:

'thank you so much!" Next day she watched for the little girl, who did not appear till about halfpast four, and then she came out to hop nimbly up and down the flight of the annual meeting held Tuesday stone steps. Miss Mab threw a shawl over her head and crossed the snowy street. She had a gracious way with children which readily reached their hearts. The shyness of the child dis appeared while Miss Mab delivered a nervous invitation. "You'll remember." she said gently, "what I want you to do. Jest whisper to your father when he picks you up at the street corner that a lonely old woman who lives across the street wishes a bit of Christmas fellowship, an' if you and he haven't anything else planned she invites you to come and dine with her to-morrow. I'll watch for you to come back, an' if you wave your hand I'll know you'll come. You can remember?" "I'll remember," answered the little were installed and an oyster supper girl. She spoke gravely, but there was an eager light in her eyes. "I'm sure we'll come. Papa and me was talk-Governor Herrick may be abused ing about Christmas last night, and we would have been invited. We don't know anybody here yet, except boarding house folks. I've wanted so to get acquainted with your kitty, but I didn't dare come over." "You dear little soul!" said Miss

Mab, warmly; "you shan't have any more lonesome days, if I can help it

Miss Mab watched anxiously the meeting at the corner. The child did not nestle her head on her father's shoulder, as was her custom; she was talking to him eagerly and pointing louse set in the midst of a wide gar-

Miss Mab's heart began to beat tumu!

tuously, when she saw the tall man come striding across the street through the snow. She threw the door open before he knocked. He bowed courte

"My little girl has told me of you goodness," he said. "It is kind of you, ery, very kind. I do not know how to thank you. We shall be very happy to come. I do not mind the loneliness much for myself, but for Cynthia, left alone all day in our bare little room

the thought of it stays with me con stantly while I work." Cynthia hung whispering in blissful friendliness to

"Twas a bold thing to do, invitin' strangers this way," said Miss Mab, apologetically. The scarlet blushes were chasing each other across her cheerful face. "I didn't say anything about the little girl's mother, because

"Cynthia's mother died when she was three days old," said the man, slowly; "she has had to grow up with hardly anybody to care for her but her father. He isn't quite as good as a

"He's pretty nearly as good," whispered the child, stroking the careworn

strange, choking sob; "land sake, we, Cynthia?" The child nodded em-she will be going to school pretty soon; and our Christmas is assured

rossed the street, and Miss Mab wiper

in her big rocking chair. "It is more blessed to give than to receive," she said to herself; "somehow, it seems to

After the dinner had been cleared joyous warmth of fellowship. The graclous wood fire wrapped the little group in its friendly glow and the very spirit

It was a wild, cold winter, with great snow storms whirling over the country and city streets blocked with huge drifts, but there were no more lonely days for Cynthia. The room in the desc late boarding house was almost deserted radiance of gracious friendliness and blissful warmth constantly awaited the child in the house across the street.

Maltie's welcome was as cordial as that of his mistress. Every morning, after he had eaten his comfortable breakfast.

he jumped in the living room window to curl himself up in a gray ball with expectant half shut eyes fixed on the brick building across the street . He watched till the door was opened by a tall man who carried a lunch box and a little clinging bundle wrapped in a fleecy

brown shawl He always chose the same path; he came striding across the street to the red brick house set in the wide yard. Then Maltie with a sudden eager leap went to find his mistress, and fol-owed her, purring loudly, to the front door. He could scarcely wait for the little visitor to be unwrapped. Miss

Mab's hunger for fellowship was no less ardent than that of the gray cat. Then what days followed. It seemed like a sudden burst of sunshine come into The careworn look seemed to be fad ing from her father's face. When evening came and he stopped at Miss Mab's arms, there was time for a few moments' cheerful conversation. Cynthia's farewells were always tempered by the assurance of her return in the morning.

One night the child, tucked in blanket, laid her cheek against her nearly finished. She whispered: "Don't you love Miss Mab, father?" "I do." he

"She's just as good as a fairy god mother, isn't she?" questioned the child; "almost as good as the godmother who came to take care of the poor little

"Twice as good," laughed the father

"I couldn't have her for a really, truly,

"And then she makes such good

"And what could we offer for all of

"Why, we could love her," said the child: "you and I could love her with all our hearts; that would make her very

"I know it would. Won't you ask her

"Only we have so little to offer," sai

"Loving people isn't little, is it?" in

"No." The man's eyes were fixed on the cheerful red glow in the window of Miss Mab's living room. "No, dearest, if we can come?" Cynthia pleaded.

that, the home and the goodness and-"

things to eat. I could have a ginger own godmother, could I?" she asked.

"It would be very nice."

"Would it, really?"

bread man for tea every night."

father's, when their bedtime talk was Cynthia's lonely life.

said in a low voice.

anxiously

her father.

sisted the child.

between morning and night.

homely, cozy living room.

"The worst is her loneliness,

We will be delighted to come."

mother would be, is he, dearest?"

to do the motherin', too!"

phatically.

delightedly over her father's shoulde

She did not wave her answer across the street to the little

LESSON TEXT.—Isaiah 9:1-7; Me erses, 6, 7. Read also Luke's account to birth of the Christ in Luke 2:1-20.

TIME.—This prophecy was probably tered some time in the reign of Ahas, fa of Hesekiah, 735-726 B. C.

Introductory Mote.

These verses from the prophecy of Isaiah which form the basis of our Christmas lesson are the concluding portion of the peoplecy of Chapter 8, the "Nevertheless" of the opening verse indicating a contrast between the judgments and calamities enumerated in chapter 8 and the promise of the Light, and the Prince of Peace, given in the first seven verses of chapter 9.

The ambiguity of much of the text is removed by the Revised Version, especially it the third and fifth verses. The third verse reads: "Thou hast multiplied the nation thou hast increased their joy," etc. The fifth verse: "For all the armours of the armed men in the tumuit, and the garmen rolled in blood, shall be for burning, for for of fire." To appreciate the condition of and desolation of the nation, implied in the term "darkness," as a result of the correction of Ahast, during which period the prophecy was uttered, we must turn has to Isaiah 7 and 2 Kings 16:1-8, and the parallel passage in 2 Chronicles. But great dark ness has the promise of Greater Light.

The Lesson Outline.

THEME:—Christ and His Kingdon
L—The Land of the Shadow of Deat

1, 2.
Place of (I) Vexation; (I) Affliction
Darkness; (4) Death.
II.—The Vision of the Coming On is hard lines when the father has "We are very happy together, aren't 6 His Names—(a) Wonderful; (b) Counsellor; (c) The Mighty God; (d) The Everlasting Father; (e) The Prince of Peace.—v. 6.

III.—The Character of His Kingdom.—va. 7.

(1) Peaceful and Prosperous. "Of the increase of His government and peace there shall be no end."

(2) Rightcous. "To establish it with judgment and with justice."

(3) Everlasting. "From henceforth even forever." I cannot thank you cordially enough, madam, both for Cynthia and myself. child waved a good-night as they her eyes furtively when she sat down

Comparing Scripture with Script

the land. Where sin reigns the always to be found vexation of spi sore affliction; darkness and moral and spiritual. II.—The Vision of the Co (1) His Essential Chracteristic "A Great Light" "The Light shined," going to Capernaum to dwell. 4:13-15. Cf. John 1:4, 5, 9; 8:12. (2) His Mission - Deli more galling and oppressive than the 25; 1 Cor. 15:57. (3) His Methods-Peaceable.

er." This also awaits fulfillment (5) His Names-(a) Wonder Judges 13:18, margin; 1 Tim. 3:16. (b) Counsellor—Rom. 11:38, 34; Col. 2:3. (c) The Mighty God—Ps. 24:8; Titue 2:13. (d) The Everlasting Father—"A child" yet "The Everlasting Father"-See Jesus' own claims in John 10:30 door to gather the little girl back in his and 14:9. (e) The Prince of Peace. A title in harmony with the dec tion of verse 5. Already He is

> III.-The Character of His Kingdo -(1) Peaceful and Prosperous. reign will bring prosperity and peace such as was never before known. (2) Righteous-When Christ shall prevail. Isa. 42:21; Ps. 45:6, 7. (3) Everlasting-"From hence even forever." Dan. 2:44. IV .- The Certainty of Fulfillment The zeal of the Lord of Hosts will perform this." This is the guarantee of the realization of all the wonderful provisions of this striking proj Seven centuries before the Christ was born, Isaiah had the vision of Him He came, and how marvelously was Scripture fulfilled in Him. There are prophecies still to be fulfilled, and not one jot or one tittle shall pass fro

5:18; Is. 40:8; 51:6. "His name shall be called Won

The Prince of Peace J Sunday School Lesson for Doc. 25, 1900

Prepared by the "Highway a Byway" Preacher.

GOLDEN TEXT.—'His name sha called Wonderful, Counsellor, The M God, The Everlasting Father, The P of Peace."—Isaiah 9:8

(1) His Essential Characteristic-Light
"A great Light," "The Light shined."

bring such warm comfort into your Death—The place of (1) Vezation; (3) Amiction; (3) Darkness; (4) Death. Vs. 1, 2. Sin like a cloud enshroused way Miss Mab sunned herself in the of Christmas seemed to hallow the and declares its fulfillment in the thought. The acco war and the garments of the warri burned up. War is to cease. Uni sal peace is to prevail under the of King Emmanuel. Issiah in charte 11 gives in fuller detail all that i implied in this verse. This part of the prophecy has yet to be fulfilled (4) His Authority-Supreme government shall be upon His ah peace." Luke 2:14; Eph. 2:14.

reign then shall perfect righteou

the law until all be fulfilled. Matt ful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace." "What's in a name?" has been asked in irony. Ah! Everything when there is character behind the name. The titles which the Holy Spirit gave to Jesus 700 years before His advent are expressive of His character. Interpres Jesus through His titles and then Jesus become the exponent and deanttion of these titles. The Gospels spall in marvelous fullness and accuracy the someobdy has said that love is the names, Wonderful, Counsel Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace.